PARTNERSHIP

Kansas is proud to proclaim,
"First to carry the torch...

AND STILL LIGHTING THE WAY!"

On your mark....

The Law Enforcement Torch Run® (LETR) is a year round movement to raise funds & awareness for Special Olympics athletes. The Torch Run is successful because of the generosity of businesses and individuals throughout Kansas. The LETR began in Wichita, Kansas in 1981 and ignited into a worldwide movement for Special Olympics. Kansas LETR has raised over $6 million for Special Olympics Kansas (SOKS).

Each year law enforcement officers from across the state volunteer their time to raise funds and awareness for the SOKS athletes through t-shirt and hat donations and unique fundraising events including Polar Plunges, Tip a Cops, World's Largest truck convoy and a variety of sports tournaments and unique events. In addition to raising funds, law enforcement officers carry the Flame of Hope across Kansas to the SOKS State Summer Games where they light the cauldron to signify the official opening of the State Games.

*“Let me win.
But if I cannot win,
let me be brave
in the attempt.”
